Attendance is extremely important!

It is extremely important to me that our families are involved on campus and feel welcome. Our first Parents’ Association meeting will be at 7pm on Monday, August 14th! This is an incredibly dynamic group and a great way to know what is going on around UHS! I will be delivering a “state of the school” address and sharing information about our enrollment as well as testing results.

TUESDAY IS PARENT OPEN HOUSE!! Open House will take place on Tuesday, August 15th from 6-7:30pm. There will be a mandatory parent meeting for any student playing a fall sport before open house at 5pm in the Auditorium. There is an Open House flyer in this newsletter that your child can complete for you so that you can follow their schedule. We will have helpers around campus to guide you to classrooms. Students are not required to attend. This is a great way to meet your child’s teachers and understand expectations. This is a huge part of staying engaged on campus. There is a flyer in this newsletter for your child to complete so that you can follow their schedule.

TUSD has identified 4 finalists for the TUSD Superintendent position (see page 2). Please participate in the TUSD forums taking place next week to learn more about these candidates!! It is important for our UHS Families to be part of this process!

On Monday, August 14th there will be a mandatory SENIOR Meeting at 7:45 in the Auditorium. On Tuesday, August 15th, there will be a mandatory JUNIOR Meeting at 7:45 in the Auditorium. Thank you to all of our freshmen and sophomore students who arrived on time for these important meetings this past week.

On Friday, August 18th, we will host our FIRST home football game of the year against Pueblo! We will be dedicating our new field that was paid for by the Arizona Cardinals! We may have some very special guests from the AZ Cardinals that evening to deliver the game ball. This is not an event to be missed! I hope to see you ALL there!

Amy Cislak, Principal

Penguin Families,

We finished our first full week of school. As I visit classrooms each day, I continue to be blown away at the relationships that our students have already built with their teachers and one another. It feels like we have returned from a long weekend rather than that we have just started a new school year. I continue to be impressed with each class I visit. We have a program at UHS entitled the UHS Ambassador Program where whenever a guest enters a classroom, a student ambassador quietly walks to that guest, introduces themselves (and shakes the guest’s hand), tells the guest what the class is, how old they are and then proceeds to share the class objective and what the students are working on. It is truly one of my favorite parts of visiting classrooms. Our students are incredibly engaged and always have fun (and funny!) anecdotes to share! As principal of this amazing place, I continue to be amazed and I am proud of all our students, teachers and families. Did you know that University High School has almost 1200 students, making it the 5th largest high school in the entire country. Over 56% of UHS students represent 57 different middle schools from all over Southern Arizona! UHS is considered the most ethnically and socioeconomically diverse admissions based public high school in the entire country. Over 56% of UHS students qualify for free or reduced lunch. We had more National Hispanic Scholars last year than any other high school in the entire country! Over 70% of participants in our shared athletic department attend UHS and over 80% of the fine arts department students are UHS Penguins! So often I am told that our students are not involved or engaged in school beyond the hours that they study for intense courses. UHS alone has over 50 academic, social and philanthropic clubs that our students are involved in beyond athletics and fine arts and we know our students are engaged in activities beyond our campus. I continue to be proud of our students and the amazing things that they do beyond the classroom. Please continue to stay involved! Simply put, being a Penguin is something to be proud of! I can’t wait to celebrate the stories of our community this year!

YEA! STUDENT SUCCESS STORIES

Riley Benner, CEO, Phoenix Haberdashery, Rochester, NY

Riley Benner is a graduate of the Young Entrepreneurs Academy (YEA!) class of 2014 at the University of Rochester in Rochester, New York. As part of the YEA! class, Riley turned hisversible necktie idea into a high-end men’s accessory business—Phoenix Haberdashery. His revolutionary reversible neckties offer two ties for the price of one and allow the wearer a “quick-change” in case of a spill or stain during the day. Phoenix Haberdashery was crowned the 2014 YEA! Saunders Scholars National Competition winner in Washington, D.C., naming Riley as America’s Top Young Entrepreneur! www.phoenixties.com

Rachel Zietz, CEO, Gladiator Lacrosse, Boca Raton, FL

Gladiator Lacrosse was founded in 2013 by then 13 year old seventh grade entrepreneur and lacrosse player, Rachel Zietz. Like every player wishing to improve his or her game, Rachel’s coaches advised her to play “full ball” and practice her shot as much as possible. However, the quality of the products she purchased would not hold up to the weather outdoors and were expensive. Participating in the YEA! Greater Boca Raton Chamber of Commerce program, Rachel started a business that produces high-quality lacrosse equipment at an affordable price and Gladiator Lacrosse was born. www.gladiatorlacrosse.com

Tanner and Spencer Harrison, Co-CEOs, Campfire Industries, South Jordan, Utah

Tanner and Spencer Harrison, brothers and co-CEOs, graduated from the South Jordan YEA! class in 2013. Their business idea, the Wolf’Em Stick, is a pioneering product of their company, Campfire Industries. The Wolf’Em Stick is a unique tool that creates tasty dough treats over a campfire. The success of the Wolf’Em Stick earned the Harrison brothers 2nd place in the 2013 YEA! Saunders Scholars Competition, including a trip to America’s Small Business Summit in Washington, D.C. Tanner and Spencer introduced their product at the South Jordan Country Fest in 2013 and sold 200 units. They were contacted by county mayor, Ed McAdams, who showcased Campfire Industries at the Lake County Fair, where they sold 600 units! www.wolfem.com

Brandon Boynton, CEO, MostBeastlystudios LLC, Madison, Indiana

A 2014 graduate of YEA! Madison County, an incoming senior at Pendleton Heights High School in Indiana, and a member of the Madison County Chamber of Commerce Board, 17-year-old Brandon Boynton was a finalist at the YEA! National Saunders Competition last year. A self-taught iOS app developer prior to YEA!, he officially launched his business, MostBeastlystudios LLC, and developed his featured app, The BullyBox, through the YEA! program. Brandon has received numerous accolades in his short career, including a full scholarship to Apple’s 2014 World Wide Developers Conference. He was also the winner of the US Congress 5th District STEM Competition and garnered considerable international media recognition. He was recently the youngest person ever nominated for a prestigious TechPoint “Rising Star” Mira Award. Brandon is the owner of The BullyBox, as well as an assortment of other apps that embody his company’s slogan “Apps that make a difference.” www.mostbeastlystudios.com

Kayla Abramowitz, Founder & CKO, Kayla Cares 4 Kids, Palm Beach Gardens, FL

Kayla Abramowitz, 13, of the Northern Palm Beach County Chamber of Commerce YEA! class, Palm Beach Gardens, FL, won first place at the 2015 YEA! Saunders Scholars National Competition with her business idea, Kayla Cares 4 Kids, a non-profit organization that collects and donates entertainment and educational items to children’s hospitals and Ronald McDonald Houses nationwide. Kayla, Founder & CKO (Chief Kid Officer), came up with the idea after she and her 9-year-old brother Ethan both experienced extended hospital stays due to chronic illnesses. Kayla Cares 4 Kids has already made headway on the mission to help children feel better with deliveries of nearly 6,500 DVDs, electronics & books to 65 children’s hospitals and related facilities in 40 states, plus Washington, D.C.
